Dear Editor:

Carroll Township and Dillsburg Borough residents beware!

Citizens Hose C #1 of Dillsburg provides primary (1st due) fire, rescue, and ambulance service to residents of Carroll Township And Dillsburg Borough! Citizens Hose Co #1 also provides contracted services for Franklintown, Wellsville, Franklin Township, portions of Warrington, Washington, Monaghan Townships, and may soon be providing primary ambulance service to Monroe Township. Citizens Hose Co #1 has approximately 21 EMT's, 25 firefighters, 15 fire police, two first-line engines, one ladder truck, rescue truck, brush truck, and three ambulances. Those statistics are important to remember!

Recently many of you have received fliers requesting donations from the Franklintown and Monaghan Township fire companies I wish to inform you that they provide assistance as requested by Citizens Hose Company officers and subsequently are not your primary fire/rescue service. I urge you to carefully consider your donation as it may not directly benefit you. I must also point out that these erroneous requests were done in very poor taste, as Citizens Hose Company is preparing to mail its yearly ambulance flire co. membership drive in the next few weeks.

The Franklintown And Monaghan Township fire companies should be supported by their respective municipalities, not their neighboring municipalities. If they can't survive on that, then maybe it is time for a few less independent fire/rescue organizations.

Remember, Citizens Hose Company already provides the service to you, that these companies want to purchase with your donations! Why buy what you already have!

Like many of you, I also received those flyers and questioned why they want to duplicate a service already provided. This editorial is submitted by an active firefighter/EMT with Citizens Hose Company, it should in no way be construed to represent the feelings of the officers and active members of Citizens Hose Co. #1

Dear Editor:

My limited vocabulary and our limited space prevent me from adequately expressing our gratitude and admiration for the Dillsburg Volunteer Fire Company. Their prompt response and professional action prevented a serious fire from becoming a tragic one at our home on February 7th I've read of firemen risking their lives to save a life but never once did a women ever stop to consider to protect our furniture. Their expertise and courage saved most of our clothing, furniture, pictures mementoes and personal papers. Because of them our lives are only temporarily interrupted, not permanently disrupted. Until we can express our gratitude in a more tangible manner, thank you firemen and women. Well done!

Restroom Equity

Legislation which would "restroom equity" to public buildings in Pennsylvania has passed the Legislature and is on the desk of Gov Robert P Casey

The House on Tuesday unanimously approved the bill originally developed by Rep Bruce Smith (R-92nd).

"On the surface, many people considered this bill frivolous, but there is a genuine need for additional women's facilities in most public gathering places," Smith said.

Under the measure, public buildings constructed after the law takes effect or public buildings which undergo renovation of more than 50 percent of the structure would have to provide more restrooms for women

Buildings included in the legislation are stadiums, community and convention halls, public schools, sports and entertainment arenas and state buildings Hotels and restaurants are exempt,

The state Labor and Industry Department would determine the ratio of men s to women's rooms

Since unveiling my bill in September, I've received a positive response both in the district and outside of it," said Smith

"I think it's a women issue, a fairness issue, a commnn-sense issue." he said

Lady Bears dream ends

by John Middlekauff

Tuesday evening (2/13), the Northern Girls Basketball Team took to the road in hopes of maintaining a chance in tie for the second half crown in Mid-Penn Division III They also knew that they would need help in getting that share lost prior to the start of their game with West Perry Northern's Head Coach Rick Speck learned that yes indeed, Susquenita had bumped off Division leader Big Spring! The Lady Bears had a chance! That chance went down the drain in the very first quarter against the Lady Mustangs West Perry roared to a 13-0 lead in that quarter on their way to a 55-39 demolishing of the Northern team and with it any hopes of challenging for the Division crown

Much to the credit of the West Perry Girls, who were also in the hunt, they were determined to give Northern a real run for their money That run for West Perry turned into a walk for the Lady Polar Bears It was in the words of a very downcast Rick Speck, "The worst game we played all year." In a game of this significance, you would assume that the girls would be fired up, ready to go all out Instead they came out flat, and what is worse with no intensity at all To their coach it was very simple, "Our defense was terrible, and we just got hammered on the boards." West Perry got plenty of help from Senior Lori Thebes Miss Thebes finished with a game high nineteen points, with fourteen of those in the first half-that is fourteen out of WP's total twenty-three first half points Northern was led by Gretchen Klaus thirteen, but she got very little help.

Friday afternoon (2/16) the Lady Bears woes continued Facing the Mechanicsburg Lady Wildcats, Northern dropped an overtime contest to visiting Mechanicsburg 58-55 This had to be a real crusher The Lady Wildcats have had trouble all year First year Coach Tanya Brown has not been able to find the right combination But even though Mechanicsburg only had a 6-15 overall record, they had something to prove.

Staying hot on the heels of the Lady Bears, Mechanicsburg went on a 21-14 run in the third quarter to create a bad situation for Northern In the fourth quarter the Lady Bears, fueled in part by Nancy Iacoby's eight points game from behind to knot up the score 53-53 at the end of regulation. In overtime Northern could only manage 2 points, while Mechanicsburg nailed five to pull off, for them, this stunning victory

Despite the fact that Northern had three starters in double figures, Kay Kula led the scoring for Northern with a career high sixteen points, followed A by Nancy with fourteen and Amy Minnich with sixteen, the Bears just could not find the knockout punch Northern also had a very difficult time getting the ball to Gretchen This has happened before and will happen more often next year Any coach worth his salt will tell you, in defensing Northern you stop Klaus and let the others prove they can beat you So Gretchen has seen double-team and triple team against her, and the others haven't proven they can win on their own. This is not an attempt to pinpoint the Lady Bears' problems-I believe they go much deeper! So with one more scheduled game remaining (at Camp Hill-Tuesday), the Bears must find some way to pick up the pieces, recognize them, and put them together if they have any hopes in the upcoming P I A A playoffs

Northern J V player Ashley Slouffer, in action against Mechanicsburg last week. Northern lost 23-25 in the final seconds of the game.
